REPORT OF THE SELECTMEN

To the Citizens and Taxpayers of Haverhill:

The selectmen submit herewith their report for the year ending February 15, 1916.

Following the course of previous years the selectmen desire to give a brief statement of town affairs as contained in the following pages.

Highways—

This department continues to call for large expenditures due to the demand for better roads and unfavorable weather conditions. A large part of the Connecticut river trunk line was resurfaced and the entire road (over eleven miles) oiled. A large amount of work was done on the Oliverian Brook road under the State Aid act, and the road built last year under this act was oiled. Court Street at Haverhill Corner, roads at Pike Station, Depot Street at North Haverhill and meadow road north of Cottage Hospital were oiled. A number of railroad crossing signs, danger signs and guide boards have been placed on the highways. A new state highway has been laid out from Plymouth to Haverhill, so that what has been known as the Oliverian Brook road will now become a state road. Your selectmen, after investigation, felt that it was not advisable to purchase a portable stone crusher this year.

Police—

No appropriation is made for this department. A large part of the expense is for caring for tramps.

County and Town Poor—

Both of these accounts show an increase over last year. Your officials have done their best to keep expenditures down and at the same time do their duty toward those who are unfortunate.

Trust Funds—

There are trust funds held by the town amounting to $7,950.

Tax Collection—

There was committed to the tax collector the sum of $60,501.31 and abatements made him of $193.93.

Quarantine—

There was expended for quarantine expense $475.99—a slight increase over last year.

Miscellaneous—

The total expended under this heading is large, for it includes such items as the county tax, payment of town bonds, etc. The total, however, is nearly $3,000 less than last year.

Inventory—

A comparison of the inventories of 1914 and 1915 will be found on a later page. It will be noticed that there has been a substantial increase in the value of real estate, vehicles, stock in trade and live stock, but this increase has been offset by a large decrease in the amount of money on hand or at interest.

Financial Condition—

The town is owing no notes and has no outstanding orders. Town bonds to the amount of $3,000, have been paid during the year, leaving the amount now outstanding $6,000. The financial statement as printed shows a decrease in debt during the year of $3,813.09 and a cash balance in the hands of the town treasurer of $1,353.17. The net debt of the town is now $3,977.56. On December first $3,000 of town bonds will be paid so that another year the town should be practically out of debt.

Warrant—

There are several important matters to be acted upon at the coming town meeting, among them the discontinuing of two highways. We would especially call attention to Article 19, in the warrant relative to a new free highway bridge across the Connecticut river at Woodsville. There seems to be a very strong feeling by people on both sides of the river that the time has now come for such a bridge and that the town is now in a position financially to undertake this improvement.

Your attention is called to a change in our laws providing for the election of delegates to National Conventions. Delegates will be voted for at the coming March meeting and polls will open for such votes between twelve o'clock noon and four o'clock p. m.

Following is the report in detail:

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

It is the desire of the school board to render a full and complete account of their doings and correctly inform the voters and taxpayers as to the finances of the district.

During the past year it has been necessary to have a new furnace in No. 3 which work and material were furnished by a local jobber.

Pearson Hall has been put in good condition to meet the needs of the high school. It may be necessary to further enlarge the rooms in Pearson Hall to increase the efficiency of high school work. This will depend on the number of pupils attending school. The number of pupils now in the high school is the largest in the history of the school and it seems that the present number will not diminish.

Quite extensive repairs are needed at Brier Hill. This building should be enlarged as well as the grounds to meet the requirements of the number of the pupils in that school.

A new woodshed, toilet and stove are needed at Center Haverhill. Some repairs are needed in the basement at the Village school in East Haverhill. The woodshed and toilet in District No. 6 also need some repairs.

It is estimated that $1,500 will be needed to make these repairs mentioned.

Your attention is called to the fact that it has been necessary to borrow $6,750 pending the collection of taxes, hence an item of interest of $177.81.

It seems that the present method of handling the question of transporting high school pupils should be continued. The estimated cost for the coming year will be about $500.

We submit for your consideration the following recommendations:

For all school purposes, $11,000.00

For repairs and building and enlarging the lot at Brier Hill, $1,500.00

For high school transportation, $500.00

And such other sums as the voters see fit to raise for the various officers of the district.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. LAWRENCE,
EMIL BLANK,
ANNIE C. CARBEE,
School Board of Haverhill.

HAVERHILL ACADEMY

The most noticeable feature of the year has been the growth of Haverhill Academy, the enrollment of which has increased 50 per cent. It is quite probable that the number of pupils next year will be around 75. This situation will bring to the front rather serious problems of seating, class room, and, in general, fitting accommodations for a high school of this size. The whole building should be used for the high school alone. The problem is further complicated by the fact that the grades are increasing in size and are likely to demand in the near future the full time of three teachers. This year to relieve the pressure in the high school, Mr. Janes, teacher of the grammar school, has taken the history classes and, upon closing No. 18 school, the teacher, Miss Hood, became general assistant in the grades. This has worked well; but another year a full time assistant will be needed in the high school.

PRACTICAL ARTS

It will be noted in Mr. Cornell's report that the majority of the students in the Academy are taking the courses in agriculture or domestic arts. This indicates that the introduction of these new courses has much to do with the growth of the school. To conduct these courses efficiently considerable additional equipment is needed each year.

The practical arts work in the grades at Pike, North Haverhill and Haverhill has been unusually successful and many of the projects in both bench work and cooking which the boys and girls have done in the grades would do credit to professionals.

I still firmly believe that this work should be extended to the one-room schools and that each should be equipped as a library, workshop and kitchen. Such salaries should be paid as would enable these schools to have teachers competent to adapt this work to the needs of the school and of the community.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS

During the summer vacation the schoolhouse at No. 6 was painted inside and out. With this exception only minor repairs have been made on the one-room buildings in five years. Brier Hill, the Center and East Haverhill are most in need of repairs. More land should be acquired at Brier Hill, the house either raised or moved, and closets attached to the rear of the building. There is need of shingles, windows, hardwood floor, desks, paint and a ventilating stove. The Center needs a new arrangement of closets and shed, paint, desks, ventilating stove and curtains. East Haverhill needs running water with flush closets in the basement, paint and new desks in the primary room. Some repairs are needed on other buildings. A good sized special appropriation is needed for this purpose. As I have said before, dilapidated school buildings are not a good advertisement for a prosperous town like Haverhill.

MR. MORRISON'S REPORT

On November 17 and 18, Mr. H. C. Morrison, state superintendent of public instruction, visited all schools in the district. While he had some adverse criticism of the rural schoolhouses in the way of heating, lighting, ventilation, toilets and equipment, he said in conclusion: "In spite of all imperfections noted, I wish to express my very cordial admiration for the excellent school system maintained in this rural district. The teachers are prevailingly normal trained and, if not trained, are of sufficient education. The course of study would do credit to any of the cities and, indeed, is better than that maintained in most of the cities. All things considered, the Haverhill schools, or at least most of them, show that country schools can be amongst our best schools, where there is determined interest and leadership. This department is much interested and wishes to give every assurance of its co-operation and assistance in all possible ways."

IN CONCLUSION

I suggest that the emphasis this year be laid on the one-room schools; that the buildings be thoroughly repaired and equipped; that school authorities, parents, teachers and pupils work together to beautify the rooms with pictures and furniture and the yards with flowers and shrubs; and that such salaries be paid as will attract and hold teachers trained for country schools to the end that every rural school may be a model school.

Definite instructions should be given all janitors as to what is required of them and they should be responsible to teacher, principal or superintendent. Some schoolrooms are filthy for lack of proper sweeping and dusting.

The transportation of high school pupils should be continued.

Additional desks for the Academy will be needed and new furniture should be placed in all one-room schools as fast as possible.

The results of the year have been gratifying to me, personally, because of the hearty co-operation of all who have been associated with me in the work of the year.

Respectfully submitted,

NORMAN J. PAGE.

REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL OF THE HIGH SCHOOL

To the Superintendent of Schools of the Town of Haverhill, Sir:

I beg to submit my second annual report.

ENROLLMENT

When I made my last report the total number of pupils enrolled at Haverhill Academy was 43. This year our enrollment has increased to 65. Six of these pupils come from surrounding towns and pay tuition amounting to $216 annually. The distribution of the students in the different courses is as follows: Agricultural, 20; domestic arts, 26; English, 7; Latin, 12.

HORTICULTURE

Inasmuch as the course in horticulture is given this year for the first time, a few words of explanation in regard to it may not be amiss. Horticulture embraces a study of the best methods of growing the apple, strawberry, raspberry, blackberry, etc. It also includes the growing of garden crops, the study of insects injurious to farm and garden crops, and scientific methods of combatting them. The members of the class will also have practice in apple budding, grafting and pruning. Moreover, every boy taking this subject is required to carry on some home project to be reported upon next fall.

Last year the agronomy class sold potatoes amounting to $15.10. Of this sum, $4.76 has been used to pay for plowing, harrowing and for iron used by the farm mechanics class, leaving a balance of $10.34 which will probably be sufficient for the needs of the class this year.

PHYSIOLOGY, SICK COOKING AND NURSING

This course is also new and I will state that its aim is not to produce trained nurses, but to give practical instruction in things which will be of value to any young woman. Some of the topics covered in this course are: the human body, contagious diseases, and the laws of health. The girls taking this course are taught how to give first aid to the injured as well as how to care for minor injuries. Instruction is also given in the proper method of applying bandages. One period a week is devoted to practice in the special preparation of dishes for the sick.

NEEDS OF THE SCHOOL

At the beginning of the present school year 20 new recitation chairs were installed in the assistant's room and the same number of adjustable chairs were placed in the main high school room. As these have proven very satisfactory, I would recommend that as many more as possible be put in next year, especially since it is probable that an increased enrollment will make the installation of more seats a necessity.

Owing to the unusually large number of pupils, the science laboratory has become totally inadequate for the present needs of the school. We have been compelled to divide several classes in order to carry on laboratory work at all, and even then, there was insufficient room. If possible this defect should be remedied before the opening of the next school year. We have also been obliged to use our reading room for recitations. This has necessitated crowding 16 or 18 pupils into a small room where it is almost impossible to secure adequate ventilation, especially in winter, without endangering the health of someone.

An inexpensive greenhouse would be a great aid to our agricultural work; since many projects could be carried on in a building of this kind, which could not even be attempted in hot beds or cold frames. Such a building could, no doubt, be constructed at a nominal cost and would add greatly to the efficiency of the school.

More pupils from neighboring towns would, doubtless, be attracted to Haverhill Academy if the school possessed a gymnasium or, at least, a place where basketball could be played. Judge Westgate has kindly offered to allow the school the use of the old courthouse provided it is put in proper repair. Several public-spirited citizens have signified their willingness to aid in this if the town will bear a part of the expense. If it does not seem feasible to accept Mr. Westgate's offer, Pearson Hall might be used as a gymnasium if the pillars were removed and the upper floor supported by rods and trusses.

The increased enrollment and additional number of classes have made it necessary for Mr. Janes, the grammar school teacher, to take a part of the high school work, and it is highly probable that next year it will be necessary that four teachers devote all of their time to high school instruction.

In closing I wish to express my appreciation of the friendly co-operation of the parents and other citizens and of the loyalty of the assistant teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD B. CORNELL.

AUDITORS' REPORT

We have this day examined the accounts of the school board and treasurer of the Haverhill School District for the year 1915-1916 and find them correct.

We find a cash balance at Woodsville National Bank on February 18, 1916, of $3,338.10. We also find outstanding orders against this balance amounting to $80.90, there being a balance in the hands of the treasurer of $3,257.20. The four notes (temporary loans) referred to in above account were this day destroyed by burning in the presence of the treasurer.

The year shows continued progress in all directions. During the summer vacation the grade building was painted outside, the woodwork of the interior and the desks varnished, the walls and ceilings of rooms and hall retinted, and the floor of the basements resurfaced with cement. A part of the girls' basement was set off by a partition and fitted up with benches and tools for manual training.

At the high school one of the basement rooms was fitted up for domestic science. A hardwood floor was laid, a cupboard built, a kitchen range, sink, water heater, set tubs, chairs and tables were installed. The room was equipped with the necessary dishes and cooking utensils. A sewing machine was bought for the work in sewing.

A new flag pole, properly equipped, has been placed on the high school grounds.

The high school has also been furnished an up-to-date International encyclopedia.

Bubbling drinking fountains have been placed in the halls of the grade building.

Once each week the girls of the seventh and eighth grades have had cooking or sewing under the directions of Miss Rose, the domestic arts teacher in the high school. At the same time the boys of these grades have had bench work under their own teachers. These courses have proved deservedly popular among the pupils and have given satisfactory results. No doubt this work should begin in the fifth or sixth grades and very likely the manual training, like the domestic arts, should be continued in the high school by a mechanics arts course.

Several fire drills have been given in the grade building. Once the building was cleared in 35 seconds.

On December 10, Mr. H. C. Morrison, state superintendent of public instruction, visited the elementary schools and I give below some quotations from his report:

"I visited all the grades in the elementary schools and found the work, in general, going very well indeed, competently taught and with few, if any, loose ends."

He discusses at some length the desirability of having children enter at six years of age instead of at five, suggests a monthly fire drill and that it would be an excellent plan to have another teacher who could take such children as are likely to fail of promotion and give them individual assistance, thus preventing retardation.

In conclusion he says: "I found the building in excellent condition in a sanitary sense, except that there are a few non-adjustable seats left. I trust these will be replaced at an early date. I noted that the heating and ventilation was chiefly direct steam and windows, but the teachers were using their windows so intelligently that there was almost perfect ventilation throughout my visit.

The flagstaff and flag were in excellent condition, with the flag draped in the main corridor. I found excellent photographs in every room. In general, I am glad to say that I think the Woodsville schools are among the first-class schools of the state."

On an average for the past three years about 94 per cent of the pupils in the grades have been promoted. This is a considerably higher per cent than the average throughout the state. Yet we are left with from 20 to 30 pupils each year who need more time and assistance than the regular teachers can give them, if they are to make their grade. If it be possible next year to bear the expense of any new undertaking I would recommend that a special teacher be employed to bring our promotion record to 100 per cent.

The satisfactory progress of the schools, the loyalty of the teachers and the confidence of the school board and public have made this year an enjoyable one to me personally.

Respectfully submitted,

NORMAN J. PAGE.

The Latin Course is strongly recommended for those who look forward to teaching, and is necessary for those who plan to pursue academic work in college. Although not indispensable, at least one year of the Latin furnishes an excellent foundation for future work in modern languages, especially French. Permission is always given to transfer to the English course after the first year; yet it is wise to continue through the four years the curriculum begun in the entering year.

The English Course is offered to those who look forward to a technical career, or plan to enter normal schools or engage in the trades. It fits for such institutions of higher learning as the Worcester Polytechnic Institute, and the scientific departments of the colleges.

The Commercial Course thoroughly prepares for general or special office work, where skillful ability in stenography, typewriting and bookkeeping is required.

Parents are advised to consult with the head of the school in regard to the probable course best suited to the plans of the entering student. No boy or girl should enter the school on the opening day with an erroneous conception of the difference between the courses.

NEW COURSES

A modern school that is progressive, and one that gives the student, as by right he claims, a chance, must offer a variety of courses and subjects by which a boy or girl may find an outlet for self-expression and development. Schools should have more, rather than fewer courses. Especially is it true in the past that girls, in particular, have been forced to pursue subjects, by reason of the limitations of the curricula, which by no possible argument can be made to appear necessary to life's interests or practical to life's needs. With this most vital question pressing, a course in Domestic Arts was added in the high school for this year. A room was fitted out with modern equipment, and the work of Freshman year in plain cooking and sewing was begun last September, ten periods per week of forty minutes each being given to this. Although only a little over one-half year is before us for observation, the work has proved to be an undeniable success, and the progress made excellent. The delight which some of the girls take in this work amounts almost to a passion; and if interest is a criterion, surely the Domestic Arts course has justified its introduction in an unmistakable way.

The teaching is done by a person of judgment and ability. By economy and foresight the expense for operating this course has been kept down to a remarkable minimum. Sales of cooked food have helped to reduce the cost of materials, and an attempt to make the work self-supporting has been our aim. By all means this course should stay, and receive the cordial support of the community.

NEEDS

Many books of reference.

Hymnals for chapel service.

A victrola for the auditorium.

More visits by the public to the classroom recitations in the high school.

PRIZE SPEAKING

The twentieth year of the prize speaking contest was celebrated by the performance given February 4. Five boys and five girls participated, and were coached by Miss Luvia E. Mann, who returns to us as instructor of declamation after an interim of three years. The high order of her work was seen again in the uniform excellence of the entrants. If the usual patronage of the public can be maintained the contest can be self-supporting. It seems highly probable that an extra-curriculum activity which has stood the test of two decades merits continued attention by the public.

About fifty dollars is available for the purchase of reference books.

The recipients of prizes for 1916, prizes donated by a man and a woman interested in this work, were:

Girls	Boys
1st prize, Dorothy Rowden, '18	1st prize, Frank Wilson, '18
2d prize, Margaret Mar- getts, '17	2d prize, Albert Abbott, '18
3d prize (special), Jennie Thayer, '17

CLASS OF 1915

The following were graduated in the class of 1915:

Hazel G. Carr	Bernard Edgar Park
Henry Whiteman Lord	Ethel Mary Raymond
Harold Thomas Mitchell	Frederick Joseph Roy
Doris Nutter	Paul King Titus
Sallie Heath Nutter

Of these, Hazel Carr and Doris Nutter entered schools of higher learning, the latter matriculating in September as a Freshman in Simmons College.

CLASS GIFT

The Class of 1915 inaugurated a new feature which is to be permanent with each graduating class, namely, that of leaving with the school as a memorial of their school life and their interest in their alma mater some suitable and appropriate gift. During last commencement week this class placed in the teachers' boudoir of the High School a rug and a rocker, both very substantial and ornamental. A continuance of this practice will in time furnish the building with many articles for adornment and use.

To all school officers and teachers my thanks are hereby expressed for their coöperation and support. I am grateful to the public for their interest shown in what we try to do.

Respectfully submitted,
ELBERT E. ORCUTT.
